CALL FOR PAPERS POLITICA.EU 2023

Social action between sociology and philosophy Franco Crespi (1930-2022)

One of the most authoritative Italian sociologists, author of manuals on which most Italian sociologists of the last decades have studied, Franco Crespi, is an indispensable point of reference for social theory: in his reflections, sociology and philosophy (and not only) have constantly dialogued; few scholars like him have grasped the ambivalence of social action, against all forms of absolutization; existential dimension, personal and social identity, social solidarity, sociology of culture and knowledge are some of the themes and areas in which his contribution has been, and will remain for a long time, fundamental.

This call invites to confront each other with the speculative density of his sociology and of his social theory.
